Details:

I am a Community Development Planner with the NC Department of Commerce, Division of Community Planning. I work primarily with rural local governments by providing land use, community development, and economic development project management. I, along with others in my office, also conduct regional training sessions for planning boards and boards of adjustments. I have also been a member of the COA Board of Adjustment, first as an alternate, and currently as a full member. See www.kristycarter.net for sample projects.
